Committee Narrative

Maintenance and Capital Renewal Assessment: The committees request that the Department of General Services prepare and submit a report to the committees by October 1, 2007, that provides an assessment of the department's facility operations, maintenance, and repair responsibilities. The report should provide recommendations concerning how these functions can be improved, including appropriate staffing and funding levels necessary to ensure that the State's facilities are properly maintained and realize their life expectancies.

Green Building: Green Building Council Should Be Reconstituted and Provide Guidance Concerning the Direction the State Should Take in Implementing a Green Building Program for State Building Projects: The committees are supportive of green building principles and the potential energy cost savings such principles offer. To this end, the committees request that the Maryland Green Building Council be reconstituted to provide an evaluation of current high performance building technologies and to provide recommendations concerning the most cost effective green building technologies that the State might consider requiring in the construction of State facilities. The council should take into consideration the additional cost premium associated with the various technologies. The council should also develop a list of building types for which green building technologies should not be applied, taking into consideration the operational aspects of facilities evaluated, and a waiver process where appropriate. Finally, the council should develop criteria for determining the level of high performance achieved. The focus should be to develop a program that at a minimum requires Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) certification level building practices with the goal of reaching LEED Silver rating where possible. The council shall provide the committees with a report by November 1, 2007, that provides recommendations for the future implementation of a State higher performance building program.

Amendment No. 6

E20B
State Treasurer's Office

Committee Narrative

Capital Debt Affordability Review: Chapter 43 of 1978 created the Capital Debt Affordability Committee (CDAC) to advise the Governor and General Assembly on State debt policy. At the time, the committee developed affordability guidelines based on the State's debt policy goals. Initially, the goal was to reduce overall State debt levels, which were about twice as high as they currently are. When State debt levels declined to the proposed levels, the State's policy goal no longer was to reduce the level of debt and the criteria were modified. Currently the State faces diminished capacity, high capital demand, large and multiple-year projects, and a structural deficit. The committees request the CDAC reevaluate the affordability criteria to make them more compatible with the current fiscal condition and needs and report its findings in its annual report due September 10, 2007. The CDAC's review of the criteria shall include, but is not limited to:

- (1) the effect of diminished capacity on the capital program;
- (2) the demand for large and multi-year capital projects;
- (3) the availability of resources to support capital project debt service; and
- (4) advantages and disadvantages of adopting a capital biennial budget.

Committee Narrative

Strategic Plan for the Development of Affordable Independent Housing for Persons with Disabilities: The committees are concerned that the need for affordable independent housing for persons with developmental disabilities and mental illness far outstrips the State's efforts to supply that housing. The committees request that the departments of Disabilities (DOD), Health and Mental Hygiene (DHMH), and Housing and Community Development (DHCD) jointly develop a strategic plan to maximize the utilization of existing resources available to develop this housing, as well as to identify how to overcome the barriers to the development of this housing identified in the January 2007 DHMH Joint Chairmen's Report response on this issue. In developing this plan, the departments should also establish specific targets for the number of disabled individuals that will be placed in independent housing in the next five years, prioritize which populations will be served (e.g. those currently in State residential facilities, the homeless, etc.), and outcomes to be achieved as a result of that prioritization. The departments should submit an interim report to the committees by December 1, 2007, on the status of efforts to develop this strategic plan, and a final strategic plan by May 1, 2008, so that it can be submitted to the Department of Budget and Management for consideration in the preparation of the fiscal 2010 capital budget.

Experienced Consultants for New Public Health Laboratory: The committees want to ensure that the design and construction of the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene (DHMH) New Public Health Laboratory project is undertaken with the participation of professionals experienced in the design and construction of Biosafety level-3 (BSL-3) laboratories. The design and construction of public health laboratories that include BSL-3 laboratories is an extremely complex and precise undertaking with which the DHMH, the Department of Budget and Management, and the Department of General Services have very limited experience. As such, the committees recommend that DHMH contract with a private consultant specializing in the design of BSL-3 laboratories. The consultant should provide DHMH with an independent assessment of the project program plan and provide recommendations where appropriate to DHMH concerning the program's adequacy to effectively address the State's long-term public health laboratory needs. The independent consultant and DHMH should study and report on the possibility that the New Public Health Laboratory project may be designed and constructed as a public private partnership. DHMH should report back to the committees by November 1, 2007, with the progress it has made towards hiring a private consultant. The committees further recommend that DHMH use the construction manager at risk method in the construction of the New Public Health Laboratory to ensure that a construction manager experienced in constructing public health laboratory facilities is available during all stages of the design process to advise the design team on how to keep the design within budget and to advise on potential design deficiencies.

The deferral of these funds to fiscal 2009 shall not be construed as delaying construction of the building.~~

~~Explanation: This language expresses the intent of the General Assembly that the final $5,000,000 of State contribution to the School of Journalism by way of Academic Revenue Bonds occurs in fiscal 2009. This would complete the State's total contribution of $15,000,000 since the School of Journalism received $10,000,000 in fiscal 2007. The language also expresses intent that the Capital Debt Affordability Committee authorize $30,000,000 in Academic Revenue Bonds for fiscal 2009 to accommodate this deferral. Additionally, the language indicates that the deferral of the fiscal 2008 funds should not be construed as delaying the construction of the building.~~

Amendment No. 10

~~Add~~ Strike the following language:

~~Further provided that it is the intent of the General Assembly that remaining design funds for the University of Maryland, Baltimore Pharmacy Hall Addition and Renovation project be provided in fiscal 2009.~~

~~Explanation: During the 2006 legislative session, the General Assembly authorized funds for preliminary design of the University of Maryland, Baltimore Pharmacy Hall Addition and Renovation project with the expectation that funding for the project would continue in fiscal 2008. However, the fiscal 2008 Capital Improvement Program deferred the remaining design funds until fiscal 2009 and no funds were provided in fiscal 2008. This language expresses the General Assembly's intent that the remaining design funds for the Pharmacy Hall Addition and Renovation project at the University of Maryland, Baltimore be provided in fiscal 2009.~~

Language pre-authorizing the remaining funds necessary to complete the project is included in the 2007 Maryland Consolidated Capital Bond Loan for fiscal 2009. The reduction of $35,000,000 reduces general obligation funds by an additional $10 million and reflects a phased funding schedule in general obligation bonds over two years.

Therefore, the authorization for this project was reduced by $900,000. This language expresses the intent of the General Assembly that the deferred funds for this project be provided when construction funds are provided.

Committee Narrative

Community Colleges Facilities Grant Program: The budget committees are concerned that the demand for State capital funding in the future will continue to exceed the State's capacity and that the community colleges make separate requests for capital projects that are not prioritized prior to submission. The 15 locally-operated community colleges requested over $136 million in State capital funding for fiscal 2008. The fiscal 2008 Capital Improvement Program (CIP) anticipates $60 million annually in fiscal 2009 through 2012 for community college capital grants. The budget committees request that the Maryland Association of Community Colleges (MACC) develop a process to submit a combined capital request for the community colleges based on the funding anticipated in the CIP. Additional projects may be requested above the CIP amount provided that the request is made jointly by the community colleges and the projects are submitted in priority order. MACC shall submit a report on the process developed for a combined capital request for the 15 community colleges that participate in the community colleges facilities grant program. The fiscal 2009 capital budget request shall reflect the new process.*
