Analysis

Current Law: Chapters 43 and 44 of 2007 established Maryland as a member of the agreement, under which Maryland will commit its presidential electors to the national popular vote winner in a presidential election upon the agreement taking effect. The agreement takes effect when it is enacted in substantially the same form by states cumulatively possessing a majority of the electoral votes and the enactments of the agreement have taken effect in each of those states. Currently, Maryland’s presidential electors cast their votes for the presidential and vice presidential candidates who receive a plurality of the votes cast in the State.

Background: The effort to enact the agreement nationwide was begun in 2006, aimed at changing aspects of the current system of electing the President, including the concentration of campaigning in a minority of closely divided states and the ability of a candidate to win the presidency without winning the national popular vote.

According to National Popular Vote Inc., a nonprofit organization that began the nationwide popular vote agreement proposal, the agreement has been enacted so far in five states (Hawaii, Illinois, Maryland, New Jersey, and Washington) and, short of enactment, has been approved by committees and legislative chambers in various other states. The five states in which the agreement has been enacted possess 61 electoral votes, which is almost 23% of the 270 necessary to bring the agreement into effect.
